Chinese Language Teaching & Researching in Europe

Panel: Chinese language learning and teaching in European countries: past and present

The Chinese Language Teaching in Europe has more than one hundred years but the teaching situation is very different in each European country and it is interesting and important to have a global view of this situation with academic and social analysis and to do a comparative reflection of the perspective and the development of Chinese Language teaching in Europe.

In the Chinese teaching research field, we find that a lot of publications and articles, papers are from China mainland, Taiwan, Hongkong and how should we improve the European research of Chinese teaching. This paper will do analysis and suggestion in the Chinese teaching research field in Europe.
